SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

Several years ago in my newsletter article I wrote about my grandparents talking about the need for a “spring tonic” to cleanse your system. After the seemingly long harsh winter we might all benefit from a spiritual spring tonic to refresh and get our hearts and minds centered on the Lord. Certainly as we journey through the Lenten Season this gives a wonderful opportunity for renewal and centering on the death and resurrection of Christ our Lord and Savior. By using a Lenten devotional or just taking time daily to read and meditate on God’s Word will be beneficial.

Another blessing and spiritual lift for me is to see the bright sunshine and warmth which comes as we move into spring. Already there are flowers blooming in the upper side of our house which were covered with snow a few days ago. The flowers began blooming, almost immediately after the snow melted, which provided a positive message in my faith journey. When it appears that God’s love and care are unseen or nowhere present, I receive a card, call or someone stops in and instantly the presence of the Holy Spirit is experienced anew. It was always present, just like the flowers waiting to spring forth from under the snow cover and my life was enriched and blessed because of the power and presence of God’s love and care.

So, let’s look for opportunities to strengthen our faith and share God’s love with others during the remainder of this Lenten Season. How is your faith strengthened or what is the best “spiritual tonic” you have found in your faith journey? As for me, I gain strength from worship, love feast and communion, prayer and Bible study, listening to K-LOVE, talking to family and friends about God’s presence in my daily life. I would challenge you to be involved in ways which will enhance and strengthen your faith and then begin to share it with others.

Just as we enjoy the beauty and warmth of the sun each new day may our faith be strengthened through spiritual exercise. This will allow us to be prepared to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord on Easter Sunday morning! Let these words of John Newton speak to your heart and soul:

I am not what I ought to be.
I am not what I wish to be.
I am not even what I hope to be.
But by the cross of Christ,
I am not what I was.

Let’s praise and thank God for Christ’s life death and resurrection!!

AbbsTract April 2015

“Gardens are not made by singing, ‘Oh, how beautiful!’ and sitting in the shade.” The author, Rudyard Kipling, said that. And in this season when snow recedes and green things begin to poke up through the soft earth, many of us are turning our minds to the garden.

Indeed, it seems that every store we frequent has a display of garden items. Fresh, local vegetables are creeping back into our diets and vibrant flowers are dotting the landscape again. And I don’t know about yours, but my soul, at least, is singing!

Now, ask any gardener and they will tell you: Gardens are not made by singing “Oh, how beautiful!” and sitting in the shade. Any garden, big or small, takes work. Even a dainty flower-bed or sidewalk border requires some toil. Gardeners battle sore knees and backs, dehydration, thorn pricks, and bug bites. There are snakes and spiders to watch out for, there are weeds to combat, and a strong SPF must be applied to avoid sunburn (woe to the gardener who neglects a broad-brimmed hat and a long enough shirt!).

Some folks have the resources to hire a gardener or a landscaping crew – good for them – but when we drive past a beautiful estate, we must still remember that someone worked very hard to achieve aesthetic perfection.

Now, I could talk about gardening all day, but I suspect that Kipling was really referring to something else in his statement. If all of life is a garden of sorts, with new things popping up and old things withering away, then we must be the ones to tend it. Each person, in this sense, is given a garden to care for.

If we continue with this metaphor, then we must realize the importance of actively tending a beautiful and productive garden. Too many times we hope to park it in the shade, so to speak, and let someone else do the hard work. Or we decide that a garden just takes too much effort, and we let it be overtaken with weeds and pests.

In the famous Ecclesiastes segment, “For Everything There is a Season,” we see in verse 2 that there is a time to plant and a time to uproot. What do you need to plant in your life? What do you need to pull up by the roots?

Both actions require the soft ground of a ready heart. Spend some time in prayer this month, asking God to show you the bare spots in your garden. Ask Him what needs to be planted in order for you to be more productive and beautiful. And ask about the weeds, too – sometimes we let little weeds alone because we don’t recognize them as weeds until they’ve overtaken the legitimate plants. Ask God to help you see any signs of bitterness, anger, pride, greed, envy or dishonesty that might have crept into your garden. Pluck them out and be ruthless about it.

Gardens take a lot of hard work. And in your life, you’re the one who’s responsible for yielding a bountiful harvest. After all, gardens are not made by singing, ‘Oh, how beautiful!’ and sitting in the shade.

We’ve all got a long row to hoe –

:) Abby

A word of thanks...

I would like to thank all the brothers and sisters throughout the District who have offered expressions of sympathy and support to my family and me in our time of mourning. The many cards, memorial gifts, visits and calls have been a great comfort to us as we grieve my mother’s passing. Encouragement is ever sweeter when it is received from those who share our sustaining faith. May God’s favor rest upon each and every one.

A FREE WILL OFFERING WILL BE LIFTED
Rummel Church of the Brethren in Windber, PA held a celebration of the Jewish festival Purim on Sunday, March 1, 2015. This is something they had never done before! On the first Sunday of the new year, January 4, Pastor Ruby Mader began teaching the story of Esther.

Each week the congregants listened to part of the Biblical account of Esther, with its many twists and turns, and its relevance to our lives. Some people revealed that they had never read this book of the Bible, while others who had read it before delighted in historical revelations in each sermon. Even with winter weather extreme enough to cancel services one Sunday, the story continued.

In worship on Sunday, March 1, the story was concluded. Many attendees wore bright colors as they had been invited to. The choir's music was lively with selections having a mid-eastern flair. During the closing song, two young girls with ribbons were dancing for joy while members sang joyfully and clapped rhythmically with the choir. It was a celebration of salvation!

Following the worship time nearly seventy people enjoyed the covered dish meal in the fellowship hall. An extra table was set for the abundance of food! During the meal time persons also went to a “photo booth.” Here each donned a disguise from a wide selection of wigs, hats, masks and other items and had their picture taken. Next came a puppet show that told the story of Esther and had the audience participating as well.

Following the show all were encouraged to help themselves to the Hamantaschen (a traditional Jewish, triangular, filled cookie) that had been made for the occasion. While the cookies were enjoyed, each photo of members in disguise was shown on the big screen and all had fun guessing who was behind each disguise. Finally, all were encouraged to take Hamantaschen home with them to be shared with a friend or neighbor.

Young and old enjoyed this special celebration of salvation! A new awareness of Jewish tradition and culture was fostered. The hard work of twenty-plus people made for a fun, educational, inspirational time for all.

Living the Change: Our Offering to God

“So here’s what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him. Don’t become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You’ll be changed from the inside out. Readily recognize what he wants from you, and quickly respond to it. Unlike the culture around you, always dragging you down to its level of immaturity, God brings the best out of you, develops well-formed maturity in you.”

April 2015
Richmond, IN - Bethany Seminary has announced the winners of the 2015 Peace Essay Contest on the theme Peacemaking, Creation Justice, and the Beloved Community.

Katerina Friesen, an MDiv student at Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary, received first place for her essay “Planting the Church: Toward an Anabaptist Theology of Place.” Second place went to Jillian Foerster, a student at the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies at Johns Hopkins University for her essay “Powering a Movement with Stories.” Gabriella Stocksdale from Larkin High School in Elgin, Illinois, received third place with the essay “Small Things.” Prizes of $2000, $1000, and $500 were awarded, respectively.

Scott Holland, Slabaugh Professor of Theology and Culture at Bethany, says this theme was selected as important for our time and one generating increased interest. Through his connections with students of theology and science as well as persons in agriculture and related fields, he has heard common concerns: “the conviction that it will be difficult to achieve peace among the nations unless we together make peace with the gift of God’s creation through responsible stewardship of the land.” Holland oversees the Seminary’s peace studies program, which sponsors the contest.

Ben Brazil, assistant professor and director of the Ministry of Writing Program at Earlham School of Religion, served as a planning committee member and a judge of the essays. "Our prompt asked writers to do something hard—to think about the environment not just as an isolated issue but as a central part of a much bigger fight for social justice. I was really impressed by the very different ways our writers rose to the challenge."

Representatives of the Historic Peace Churches—Mennonite, Quaker, and Brethren—were invited to assist with the contest. Along with Holland, Randy Miller - editor of Messenger magazine, and Joanna Shenk, one of the pastors at First Mennonite Church in San Francisco, served on the planning committee and as judges. Additional committee members were Kirsten Beachy, assistant professor of visual and communication arts at Eastern Mennonite University, and Abbey Pratt-Harrington, alumna of the Earlham School of Religion. Bekah Houff, coordinator of outreach relations at Bethany, chairs the committee and helps administer the contest.

Reinstated in 2014, the Bethany Peace Essay Contest is meant to encourage creative thinking and writing across faith traditions about various manifestations and conceptions of peace. It is underwritten by the Jennie Calhoun Baker Endowment, funded by philanthropist and educator John C. Baker in honor of his mother. Described as a “Church of the Brethren woman ahead of her time,” Jennie was known for actively pursuing peacemaking by meeting the needs of others, providing community leadership, and upholding the value of creative and independent thinking in education. Baker and his wife had also helped establish the peace studies program at Bethany with an earlier endowment gift.

The winning essays will appear in selected publications of the Church of the Brethren, Quaker, and Mennonite faith communities.

HOME ADMINISTRATOR EDIE SCALETTA RETIRES: Home Administrator Edie Scaletta, RN, NHA has announced her retirement, effective March 31, 2015. Edie has been a part of our Home family for the past 42 years, and her positive influence will be felt for many years to come. She was first employed at the Home as a registered nurse, became assistant home administrator in 1996 and was named Home Administrator in 2006. During her tenure as administrator, the Home has faced many challenges, both in resident care and state mandated regulations. She has always found a way to work with our staff and board to meet those challenges with good humor and compassion. Most recently she has devoted her attention to developing a home like atmosphere at the Home, completing the conversion to automated record keeping, and maintaining a five star rating in the Medicare/Medicaid system.

The staff respects Edie and the residents love her. She always has time for the residents, really hearing their concerns and working to eliminate them. Her sharing time with the Home Auxiliary is the highlight of their meetings, her excitement about Home progress is infectious, inspiring the group to work even harder to benefit our residents. She has encouraged staff members to further their education for advanced certifications and become active in the grant application process. She has been honored for her dedication. In 2013, she was named outstanding administrator of a non-profit corporation by the Young Women’s Christian Association. During her acceptance speech, Edie summed up her feelings for her job by saying “I still go home with a sense of fulfillment and hope that the care we give makes a difference.”

Edie considers the Home to be her second home, and plans to become a volunteer in her retirement. We cannot thank her enough for the years of service she has given, and the five star excellence she has helped our Home achieve. Happy retirement Edie, God bless and keep you!

HOME BEAUTY SHOP: One of the most popular destinations in the Home is the beauty shop. Wednesday mornings in the shop are extra special, when volunteers from our Home Auxiliary come to work under the supervision of our full time beauticians to wash, set and style hair. It seems as if nothing lifts everyone’s spirits more than a fresh new “do” and conversation in the shop. The Pleasant Hill, Walnut Grove, Berkey and Morrellville churches have organized groups that work in the shop each month, but any individual volunteers with an interest in hairdressing are encouraged to join in the project. Call Susan Haluska at 361-6466 for details.
RUMMAGE SALES: Our housekeeping department has been holding rummage sales for the past few years, and we thank the many area churches that have been faithful in donating items for the sales. Due to constraints in employee hours, the rummages sales will no longer be held. Therefore, we are asking that any donations to the Home in the future be items that would actually be of use somewhere in the Home, or on our campus. Any questions about donations should be referred to Pam Harkcom or Chris Knepper at 814.467.5505.

WITH SYMPATHY: Our entire community was saddened to learn of the sudden death of Home dietary manager, Lynette Orozco. Lynette, who was originally from California, was an employee of Sodexo Senior Services and had been assigned to our Home for eight years. She was a skilled administrator, energetic participant in Home activities, and an advocate for the best dietary services possible. Eliminating world hunger was a project near to her heart. To further this cause, many dietary department events required a staff entry fee of non-perishable food items that were later distributed to the Windber Area or Walnut Grove COB food pantries. A special collection in memory of Lynette to support these pantries was held at the March nutrition show. A special memorial service for Lynette was held at the Home on March 6. Our sympathies and prayers are with Lynette’s family, we will miss our friend!

AUXILIARY SHOE PROJECT: The Auxiliary has not been actively collecting used shoes for the past few months, but we now have approximately 1,000 shoes stored at the Home, and are asking our churches to help collect the additional 1,500 we will need for another pick up by funds2orgs. As before, all types of shoes will be accepted, just rubber-band them into pairs, and drop them off at the Home. Thanks in advance for your help, call Susan at 361-6466 with any questions.

ANNUAL SPRING TEA: The annual family and resident Spring Tea is scheduled for April 26. Due to a weather cancellation of its March meeting, the Auxiliary cookie donation schedule for the event is incomplete. Churches interested in volunteering for the tea or donating cookies should contact Arbutus Blough at 814.629.9279, or Emma Thomas at 814.629.7116. Thanks in advance for the treats!

EASTER BLESSINGS FROM OUR HOME:

"Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection, not in books alone, but in every leaf in spring time." Martin Luther
If you want to touch the past, touch a rock. If you want to touch the present, touch a flower. If you want to touch the future, touch a life.

VOLUNTEERS

Our volunteers have been busy working in Heritage Lodge and the cabins. We are progressing slow but sure. Also we had persons volunteer to put out our latest mailing. THANK YOU.

Camp Harmony always welcomes volunteers. Any day is suitable, however at this time, Tuesday is the day when most of our building volunteers are present. Come and join the group any time. Thank you.

We are continuing our Feeding America program where we are providing meals to the Learning Lamp day program and after school program in Boswell. If you would like to help deliver meals during the school year and also through the summer, please contact Camp for more information. Delivering one day a week would be extremely helpful. Thank you.

More and more we are using volunteers within our many camps. We don’t know all your talents, so please let Camp know if you have interests to share with the future generations.

2015 “52 GOD BLESS YOU TEAM”

As more and more families are blessed they contribute $1.00 a week or $52.00 to Camp so that the ministry can bless others. Join the 2015 team. The original premise was that if all the families in the District contributed $52, the mortgage could be eliminated…..At this time 18 families have already joined in 2015 for $1,100. Thank you for your support.
