HOPE

Thinking and praying about something to share in this short article was not an easy task. A number of ideas and thoughts came to mind but none seemed appropriate at the moment. As I reflected and thought some more, I went back and reread an article written by Craig Allen Myers for the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel, entitled, "Public Servants Need Our Prayers." Basically, the article challenged Christians to be in prayer for our elected officials. He makes a valid point by suggesting that people of faith have an impact on our nation's values and choice of rulers.

In light of what happened in Tucson a week ago, that article takes on deeper value and meaning. When tragedy strikes, whether it be close to home or at a distance—it gives time for pause and reflection. We pray for the families who lost loved ones and those who were injured. The tragedy in Tucson touches each of our lives at their deepest level and it does have an effect on how we relate and share with family and friends.

It can speak to the way we relate to our sisters and brothers in the faith community. To treat each other with respect, love and concern does not always happen. Sometimes we use divisive and hurtful words when we are trying to make a point and get our own way in a given situation. Craig Myers suggested the next time you speak to an elected official ask them, "How can I pray for you this week?" The next time you want to tell someone like it is, pause and instead ask them, "How might I pray for you this week?"

We might be amazed at the response we receive. When President Obama spoke in Tucson last Wednesday evening he shared a bit about each person involved in the tragedy.

What really got my attention and gave me pause to think and pray about was the president's reference to Christine Taylor Green. This nine-year old was one of fifty children born on 9/11. In the book, "Faces of Hope," next to Christine's picture are these quotes: "I hope you help those in need," "I hope you sing the National Anthem with your hand over your heart," "I hope you jump in rain puddles." The president then said, "I want to live up to her expectations. Be as good as she imagined our country can be." Hope given through the eyes of a child! We, and all people of faith, have that same hope when we put our trust in the Lord and work together for the up-building of God's Kingdom.

Hello--

Got the exciting news today that the book that came out of my master's thesis was released today on lulu.com!

This is not a plea for everyone to buy a copy (although the proceeds do go to a scholarship fund at BGSU). I just wanted to share with folks that a long time dream has been realized.

It was a lifetime ago that I was a grad student at Bowling Green and Dr. Janet Parks talked me into writing my thesis. Since Janet retired, the publication of this book has been her mission and I was fortunate enough to go along for the ride.

So, take look if you get a chance.

AbbsTract February 2011

My dad is getting old.

The closer I get to 30, the closer he gets to 60 ... and it's happening.

I mean no disrespect, of course, for it is an honor and a blessing to make it so far in this mortal life. And the facts have shown us that not one of us is getting younger. Indeed, it is no shame to get old.

I can see it in the little things.

Working outside in the cold, biting wind is starting to bother him. The chill settles in his bones and his joints ache. The old thrill of winter is becoming a real pain.

He doesn't eat like he used to. During my growth spurts, we had pizza eating contests, he and I. We'd put away two large pies between us. Now he's down to stopping after seconds. And not even a bowl of ice cream later.

His tears used to wait until George Bailey was sobbing on the snowy bridge with his head bent in prayer: "I wanna live again... Oh, God, I wanna live again!" Now they begin to flow freely with the opening credits and the great gonging bell.

But I know some things will never change.

Every time he sees a souped-up Mustang, he'll think of me and smile.

Every time I say something ridiculous, he'll tilt his head down and give me "the look" over the rims of his specs.

Every time there's a poor soul in need of rescue, be it from a stuck garage door or a jobless Christmas, he'll be there with willing hands and a heart that asks nothing in return.

That's just who he is.

Who are we, Church?

We are an old Church – some would say nigh on to 2,000 years old; others would say more like 300 years. We've changed a lot as we've aged – we look a lot different than we once did. We react differently to various situations; we value different customs and ideas more than others.

But I know some things must never change.

Every time we read God's loving Word, we'll gain a renewed sense of purpose and faith.

Every time we bow in prayer, we'll honor the One who gives us breath and vigor.

Every time we humbly serve another, we'll smile and know that we're doing what Jesus did.

That's just who we are.

☺ Abby

Deuteronomy 6:6-9

Pre-spring cleaning and fabulous factoids from Abby:

A discreet FYI: Nobody's saying that your church would ever purposely violate copyright laws, but if in the past there have been illegal copies made of music (including any non-authorized copies of choir music), now would be the perfect time to destroy them. From my understanding, investigations of churches are beginning in the Pittsburgh area. Even if your church holds a CCLI license, that does not cover everything. Do your homework – ignorance is not an excuse! Visit mpa.org/copyright_resource_center for more information.

Winter / Spring Experiences: We find ourselves again in winter – but the end is in sight! Here are some awesome opportunities coming your way in the first half of 2011.

And now a quote: "To sit back hoping that someday, some way, someone will make things right is to keep on feeding the crocodile, hoping he will eat you last – but eat you he will." -R. Reagan ("The Gipper")

Brother Ron once asked me if a "factoid" is like a hemorrhoid – I hope this has not been too painful for you!

The Global Media Outreach Church
Online Missions Program

Every day, more than 2 million people around the world search the internet for God and spiritual help – they are knocking at the virtual church door! Global Media Outreach (GMO), a partner ministry of Campus Crusade for Christ, has developed more than 100 evangelical and discipleship websites in 13 languages that share the Gospel with hundreds of thousands per day.

Each day, about 40,000 indicate decisions for Christ via GMO's sites, and more than 7,000 request follow-up (you can see it live at www.GreatCommission2020.com). That's why GMO is working with churches in our region to create teams of responders, called "Online Missionaries," to serve those who are seeking help.

When your church starts an "Online Missions Team," GMO provides all the tools and support you need. Your Online Missions Team will help people all over the world come to Christ and learn to live as He has called them.

Online Missionaries

Online Missionaries (OMs) are everyday Christians who respond to and pray for seekers and their situations via email. Every OM decides how many messages they will receive; most spend about 15 to 20 minutes per day. In that short time, God will work profound changes in the lives of people all over the world and in the lives of your Online Missions Team!

Churches are using their Online Missions Teams to impact and grow many areas of the church body. Online Missions is great for everyone from retirees to youth groups (who can work as a team led by an adult or as OMs with their parents, since OMs must be 18 or older).

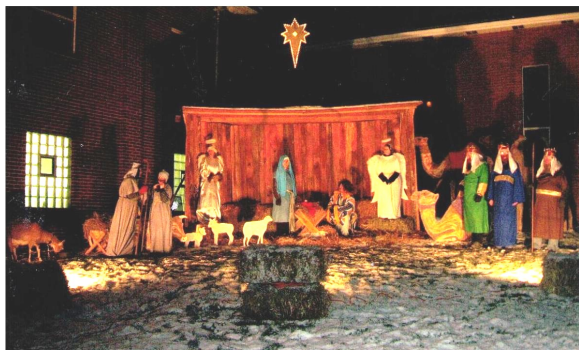

Results of Online Missions:

In surveys of OMs, it's clear that seekers are not the only ones who benefit from this online opportunity. OMs have shared ways they have been transformed, including increased knowledge of Scripture, spiritual growth, increased prayer life, more confidence to share their faith with their own family, community and church, active engagement in the Great Commission and expanded worldview as they share the Gospel.

To start your Online Missions Team today or for more information, contact Josh Glacken at 717-715-5810 or josh.glacken@GMOmail.org and visit www.GlobalMediaOutreach.com and www.GreatCommission2020.com.

LIVE NATIVITY at County Line

The County Line church held a "Live Nativity" on December 3 & 4. The event was sponsored by the church's Spiritual Renewal Team. Besides live people, there was a live goat. Refreshments were served, there was a fire for roasting marshmallows and Christmas music was played outside. Around 30-40 people attended the event. Donations were accepted to benefit a local person in need and the Spiritual Renewal Team. The church is planning on having their "Live Nativity" again next year.

LIVE NATIVITY at Middlecreek

The folks at the Middlecreek COB braved the chilly temperatures to present their CHRISTmas Celebration on December 18. It featured a live nativity and a visit to "The Inn" featuring refreshments similar to those served in Bethlehem at the time of the Holy Birth. Special guests, Judy and Larry Walker, provided vocal selections and a free-will offering was collected for the Somerset County Food Pantry. The "Little Church With The Big Heart" was delighted with the excellent turn-out. Interim Pastors John and Linda Stoner along with the congregation at Middlecreek thank you for your kind

2010 Auction Report from Financial Resource Team

Praise the Lord! He again has blessed our 5th Annual Auction. We trust in the Lord. He continues to guide our path. The money raised from the auction will be used for the ministries of the District.

The 5th Annual District Auction was held at Camp Harmony on November 6, 2010. We began the day with a fantastic buffet breakfast prepared by the Camp.

Oh, camp food at its finest, and what a fine spread we had! Anyone who missed out on the breakfast truly missed A GRAND TREAT. And for lunch, Camp fixed us a great camp lunch, complete with home baked pies. And they were delicious! Camp realized a profit of $800.00. Thanks to all who purchased breakfast and lunch.

The auction began at 9:00 a.m., with Wilbur Hosler and Diane and Ernie Holsopple as the Auctioneers. They did a great job. Our Financial Resource Team, along with many volunteers, helped in many ways. From being at Camp to receive items, to working those couple of days before the auction and the day of the Auction, not to mention the meetings planning it, the event all came together. Praise God!

We extend our many thanks to everyone who helped. Without your help this fundraising event would not be possible. Thank you for being willing to give of your time to this annual event.

The proceeds from the Auction totaled $9,313.00. The church whose items totaled the most in sales was Maple Spring Church of the Brethren, with $2,320.00 in sales. The next in sales was Scalp Level, with $1,128.00. These churches will receive camping scholarships for the 2011 camping season at Camp Harmony. The highest in sales receives a $200.00 scholarship. Second highest receives a $100.00 scholarship. Thanks to all the churches and fellowships who participated by donating antiques, baskets, gift certificates, hand crafted items, quilts, afghans, and many other items. We are blessed by each and every one of you who came, bid, and purchased items at the auction. Thank you very much! We couldn't have done it without you!

We will soon be hard at work at planning the 2011 auction which will be held November 5, 2011 at Camp Harmony. It is never too soon to start thinking of items that you can donate for the next auction.

If you have never attended, please consider coming this year. It will be a day of fun, fellowship and good food. May God richly bless you as you continue to serve Him.

BRETHREN DISASTER MINISTRIES

Brethren Disaster Ministries is alive and well. It's hard to believe that another year has gone by but, guess what, it has.

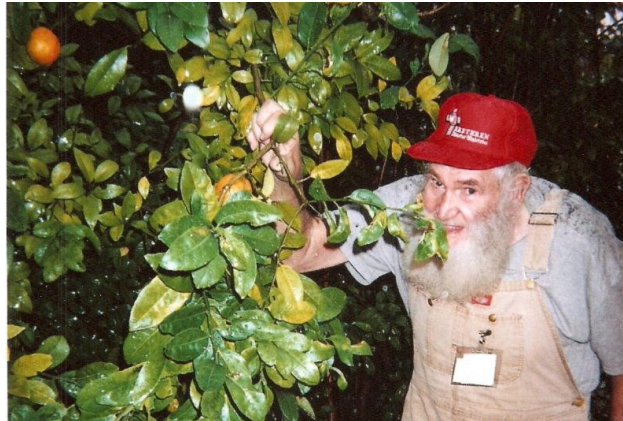

BDM has just concluded a very busy, successful 2010. Thanks to the dedication and hard work by all the volunteers who helped in any way to make 2010 a great year. The figures are not yet in, but I believe they will show that we had a record year.

We continue to seek new volunteers to join our ranks and become involved in a very rewarding mission. The pay is not great, but no amount of money will buy the feeling that you will get working on the various projects.

Since Chalmette, LA, will be closing in June, we only have one more trip scheduled there on May 15-21, and then our focus will switch to Tennessee.

If you think you would like to become involved, do some work and have a whale of a time doing it, PLEASE contact your Congregational Disaster Coordinator. If your congregation hasn't designated someone, feel free to contact me at (814) 539-8530, or you may e-mail me at hjeward@atlanticbb.net

I will be looking forward to working with the current group of volunteers like George Fyock pictured below, and well as any new ones. George is 82 and loves to help. Why not join him and others? Pick up the phone today and schedule a trip. I don't think that you will regret it.

Brethren Home Community Windber February 2011

A partnership between the Church of the Brethren Home and the Community Foundation for the Alleghenies enabled the roof repair of the Home's original 1921 building to be completed. Harvest Home donations were also used in conjunction with the recent grant awarded for the completion of the project. The Community Foundation for the Alleghenies awarded $3,500.00 through the Robert Waters Charitable Trust. The check was presented to Emily Reckner, Director of Social Services and Donna Locher, Director of Finance by Hugh Hudnall of Mainline National Bank on behalf of the Community Foundation for the Alleghenies. This is the third grant the Church of the Brethren Home has received from the Community Foundation for the Alleghenies.

Monetary donations to the Harvest Home Campaign have made it possible for the Therapy department to purchase five T-gel cushions for $150 apiece and the Maintenance department to order the last section of addressable fire alarms for the Home. Thank you again to all who made contributions to the 2010 Harvest Home Campaign.

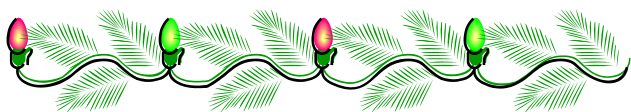

Church and Community Relations Director, Becca Hoffman, was warmly welcomed when she visited the Montgomery Church of the Brethren in December to give a presentation on the Brethren Home Community facilities, programs and activities offered to residents of each level of care. Becca continues to be available to any church or group interested in receiving information on the Brethren Home.

Our website has a new look! Visit www.cbrethren.com where you can find information on the Brethren Home Community facilities, directions, a calendar of events, news releases, photos and much more!

The Brethren Home donated two rugs, hand-made by cottager Brenna Mackall, and an antique table to the Annual District Auction. The donations raised a total of $65 for the Western PA District Church of the Brethren.

The Dietary department presented three awards to their staff in December. Adam Horner received the caring award for helping a resident who fell outside of Taufer Place on his way to work. While parking his car behind Taufer Place he observed a resident falling. Adam went to assist her, but she was unable to move. Adam ran to the Church of the Brethren Home to find an RN for assistance. The RN's went to the parking lot and called an ambulance to transport her to the hospital. The resident had a fractured hip and was admitted to the hospital. Adam's quick response to the situation showed his compassion and commitment to assuring the safety of our residents. The other two awards were given to Lori Isenberg and Scott Michaels for their perfect attendance record.

The 2010 Christmas Tree of Stars was full of stars and ornaments, in remembrance of loved ones and friends, in the Circle Lounge. A sincere thank you to everyone who participated in this year's Tree of Stars Campaign. We have raised approximately $8,000 towards the benevolent care for our residents.

This holiday season the activities department worked together with the Presents for Patients campaign to receive 150 plush teddy bears for our residents. Four of our residents were "adopted" by individuals who brought gifts and visited with the residents. The Presents for Patients program, founded by the president of St. Barnabas Health System, has raised gifts and visits in nursing homes for 28 years and continues the campaign in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, West Virginia and Tennessee. The goal of the campaign is to put a smile on the face of a nursing home patient while introducing members of the community to their local long-term care facilities.

The residents at the Brethren Home have had a variety of entertainment this past fall and Christmas season. In October volunteers from St. Anthony's Church in Windber held a Pie Social for the residents. They provided many different kinds of pie so the residents were able to enjoy their favorite! Gretchen and Reg Dunneman shared the message of God's love through an inspirational concert this fall. Reg and Gretchen travel around the east coast in their RV sharing their musical talents at Bible conferences, churches, camps and retirement communities, to name a few. The residents always enjoy the talents shared with them especially at Christmas time. The Scalp Level COB choir sang to the staff, residents and their families at the Christmas Open-House. Shade and Windber High School choruses both spread Christmas cheer to the residents and staff through their wonderful concerts. And last but certainly not least the kindergarteners from Windber Elementary school sang Christmas carols to the residents, leaving a smile on everyone's face. The residents at Pettikoffer House also got to enjoy the Holiday season through entertainment, as well as, watching Christmas movies, going on shopping trips and going on a bus ride to look at Christmas lights.

We would like to thank everyone for their overall Christmas generosity and wish you a happy and healthy New Year!

creation, and find harmony with God, with nature, and with one another"*

THANK YOU FOR YOUR DONATIONS IN 2010 AND BECOMING ATTACHED TO THE CAMP HARMONY MINISTRY...

300 + individuals / groups became attached to the Camp Harmony ministry and Camp was able to eliminate some of the debt without taking it from the general operating funds. In fact without the additional donations, Camp would have slid back to being in desperate need. For that fact we are continuing this campaign in 2011 and we would like to invite you to again be part of this Blessed group. For $1 a week per family in the Western Pennsylvania District Church of the Brethren - the Camp Harmony ministry continues to climb out of the debt and move forward with spreading the teachings of Jesus through word and deed.

We look forward to having you part of the 2011 FIFTY TWO TEAM. All donators will be made public unless you tell us otherwise. THANK YOU...

Stay connected to your Camp Ministry....

"52 God Blesses You and Camp Harmony is Blessed to be a Blessing."

In the year 2010 - approximately $20,000 was donated and we were able to eliminate two credit cards, bring the mortgage down by $8,000 and decrease the last two credit cards by $7,000.

DIGNA

Date of birth: May 24, 1999

Digna was rescued by INFHA and after living for a year with a foster family found shelter at Hogar Emanuel when she was five years old. Now she is a very happy and active young lady: a midfielder on the girl's soccer team, helps raise the chickens on the home's farm, and enthusiastically participates in dance, choir and drama through the church and the home. The activity she enjoys the most, however, is karate. This little yellow belt dreams of one day being a karate teacher herself! Digna's educators all agree that her behavior and attitude have greatly improved since she started karate classes. According to Digna the thing she likes best about the home is that she feels loved by her educators and all the staff. She is a friendly, playful and sweet little girl who has been blessed to find a loving home in Hogar Emanuel. Please keep Digna in your prayers this month.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE EMANUEL CHILDREN'S HOME!

✿ As part of their Corporate Social Responsibility, volunteers from Wal-mart recently visited the home and provided a re-cycling workshop for the staff and children to teach them how to conserve the environment and at the same time not be wasteful. They also gave a nice gift of in-kind products that can be used at the home.

✿ Our school-age children have been on break since mid-November and have enjoyed many Christmas visitors and parties during the month of December, but now it is time to gear up to go back to school. Although the children are divided into seven different schools, this February the majority of them will be moving into a new school due to the loss of a scholarship from one of these schools. This means that a different (new) school uniform must be purchased for each of these children and will need to absorb double the matriculation and tuition fees that we have needed in the past. We anticipate the educational expenses for the 2011 school year to be in excess of $13,000. If you can help with the cost of educating our children, this translates to approximately $300 per child for the coming school year!

✿ During the month of January, the children will enjoy a constant flow of work groups from western Pennsylvania who will be sharing in the lives of the children and doing odd jobs to help improve their living conditions. Prayers for those traveling to home this month are appreciated.

✿ Thanks to the Embotelladora de Sula, three of our boys were able to travel with their soccer team to San Jose, Costa Rica, to participate in a Central American tournament. Their team placed first in their division and had a wonderful, self esteem building experience.

The Star Employee for the month of January is Maria Christina Reyes. She believes that God has everything to do with her coming to work at Hogar Emanuel. She began in 2007 as a night shift educator, but now fills several different roles. She is in charge of the APORTE project in which she helps the adolescent children learn business skills by growing their own fruit and vegetables, making and selling tortillas, and raising chickens for butchering and hens for eggs. In addition, she heads up the godparent program for those in San Pedro Sula who are able to partner with the Home to help financially and share their lives with a specific child. Maria Christina also assists in finding in-kind and financial support for the Home from the people of Honduras. She also writes and distributes a newsletter similar to this one for our Spanish-speaking sponsors. She is as dedicated to the children of the home as she is her own two children, a boy and girl, ages 9 and 14 years of age. Please pray for Maria Christina, her personal family, and the work she performs at the Home.

✿ FYI: Both Vivian and her husband are doing well, thanks to your many prayers for their good health. Thank you.

Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.

Child-of-the-Month

CELICA

Date of birth: July 25, 2004

Celica lives with her sisters Cheryl (8) and Estrella (4) in the Casa Kinder (the dormitory for preschool-age children.) The three of them remain very close and always look out for one another. Celica used to be extremely shy and timid but has improved dramatically during the past year. She was the only one from Hogar Emanuel in the preparatory class (pre-K) at the Sinai School, so her classmates and teachers tended to spoil her with little snacks and treats. Now she enjoys learning to read and does a great job at coloring. At el hogar, she receives early childhood stimulation and computer classes with the other boys and girls her age.

When not in school, she spends her time laughing and playing with her friends and sisters. According to her educator, she is well-behaved, good at sharing, helpful, kind to others, and super at making her bed in the morning and putting things where they belong! She is sweet, silly, affectionate, and her smile will melt your heart.

Please keep Celica and her sisters in your prayers this month.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE EMANUEL CHILDREN'S HOME!

Each handprint listed the things the children were thankful for.

ing in turkey and pumpkin pie this year, as well as all the kids and staff and guests. I had my heart set on doing a Thanksgiving dinner for the kids and somehow it has become a reality! (I think God had something to do with it.) I just took the last of fifteen pumpkin pies out of the oven. Karen, Ruth, Libby, Tania and Lin all helped make them! I am so grateful to be able to share this special tradition with the kids and the home."

..... Then she followed the next day with this email: "The Thanksgiving dinner here was a big success; everyone seemed to really enjoy the evening. The children got all dressed up and were on their best behavior. We had all their Bible school teachers and the pastors from their church (Quadrangular Church) with us, as well as Romain (a special friend of the children and volunteer work groups), a family from the Mennonite church, and many of the employees and their families. The dinner was followed by a talent show and all I can say is we have some talented children here at the home!"

Last month in wishing Lauren (on-site BVS/GMP volunteer) a Happy Thanksgiving, I hoped that she would at least get a turkey sandwich from Subway. This is how she responded: "I actually will be indulg-

The Star Employee for December is Orlin Moreno. Orlin became a resident child of the home when he was six years old. When he was fourteen, he began to help run a kindergarten program for the younger children and eventually took on a leadership role as an assistant to the educators. Initially he received only a stipend which he used to help him get through high school, where he studied Social Promotion, graduating in 2004. Today, in addition to being the current educator to the teenage boys, he helps coordinate the schedules and activities for the rest of the educators, runs the rewards program for good behavior, is in charge of the home's library (which he keeps meticulously organized), and is the official baker of cakes for staff birthday celebrations! Orlin also lives on the grounds of the home, so he is always on call to receive visitors, give tours, sign permission slips, talk to a child who is having issues or lend a hand where it is needed. Now as a fulltime staff member, he is using his salary to put himself through college at the Honduran Technical Institute, where he is studying to become a lawyer. He is particularly interested in civil law, which deals with families, children, adolescents, adoption, matrimony, etc. He dreams of working in this capacity for the home someday once he earns his degree. In his spare time he enjoys reading, particularly fiction and books on motivation and psychology. He has three siblings who all live in San Pedro Sula and are married with children. Please keep Orlin and his family in your prayers this month.

And for this, we give THANKS.
