Just last week I had my semi-annual doctor's examination. I did not just stand in the doorway and say, "How do I look?", nor did I just sit in the waiting room, read a magazine, hum a tune and then go home happy that I attended.

Paul writes in a letter to the church at Corinth and to us today to; "Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you – unless, of course, you fail the test?" 2Cor. 13:5. NIV

I believe church attendance, participation and membership is tied together with those attending and/or claiming to be Christians and the way they (you) live every day.

The way you scream from the sidelines at referees, youth, and other parents and then serve on the church board, or as an usher or even as a deacon. The onlooker says in their mind if that is a Christian, "I want no part of that!"

You stand in line at the store while gossiping on the phone, overheard by all and during the week attend bible study, women's prayer meeting and teach the children on Sunday mornings. The observer says, "No Thanks, I don't want her teaching my children; why I might be next under her tongue."

Observe yourself when it comes to worship, day to day actions, and listen to what you say and how you say it. Is this person, (Am I), reflecting or living out Jesus?

Do we demand to have our way in everything in church? Do we threaten, connive, harass and maybe even pressure everyone to get our way? The observer and/or child remarks, "Enough of that! I have had it all my life and, I am not going to church and suffering the same thing!" And we wonder why we cannot attract or keep visitors to our churches!

Take a moment to examine yourself, maybe even compare yourself to the scripture teaching of how we are to be with Jesus dwelling within us. Then open yourself to the indwelling of the Spirit. We Cannot follow Jesus and remain unchanged! Examine Yourselves!

Isn't a fresh start wonderful? At the dawn of a new year, it feels like we get a new beginning in life. I know it's just how the calendar works, but somehow a new year brings with it the promise of a chance to do things better. When I think of fresh starts in the Bible, I have to think of Peter.

Oh, Peter. Dear Peter. Always the first to speak. Always the first to apologize for what he said. Sometimes I read about Peter and laugh, and other times he makes me cry, because I see my own faults in him.

In Mark 14 we see Jesus telling the group that Peter would deny knowing Him on the night of His arrest, and we are told that Peter kept insisting, "I will NEVER!" What a fool. Peter in that very moment tries to deny what Jesus is saying. Well, you know how the story goes. The group is camped out on the Mount of Olives, Jesus is engaged in arduous prayer, His friends are dozing off. The soldiers come with the Jewish authorities, Judas delivers with a kiss, Peter reacts with a sword, and Jesus is taken into custody. All four Gospels record what happens next.

Peter is standing in the courtyard of the High Priest, and the doorkeeper asks him if he's one of Jesus' followers. He denies it. Then some people standing around ask him the same thing. And he denies it. Then one of the guys who was actually there at Jesus' arrest insists that he saw Peter there with Jesus. And Peter denies it a third time. The rooster crows, the realization sinks in, Peter runs away and weeps bitterly.

We've all been there. That thing you swore you'd NEVER do is the very thing you've just done. That thing you promised not to do again has reappeared in your life. And that sinking, creeping, heavy, sickly feeling comes over you. The guilt, the shame, the regret. The cold fear.

What. Have. I. Done.

If I know Peter like I think I do, he spent the next few days beating himself up. Asking himself, "How could I have done it?" Wishing he could change the fact that the last thing he did for his best friend and Lord before His crucifixion was to deny ever knowing Him.

Boy, the enemy of our souls sure likes to kick us when we're down. I'm betting Satan was working overtime to poison Peter's heart and mind in those days. If he could convince Peter that his service to God was over, there would be one less believer to carry the Good News to the waiting world. The enemy loves to convince us of our failure, strip us of our value, remind us of our sins. But that wasn't the end of the story for Peter.

In John 21 we get to watch a scene so utterly perfect that it makes me chuckle. It's just such a great picture of who Jesus is. This is after the resurrection, after Jesus has appeared to a bunch of people. The disciples have just met the risen Jesus on the beach for breakfast. After they've eaten, Jesus and Peter have a chat.

"Peter, do you love Me?" "Yes, Lord, I do."
 "Feed My lambs." Again. "Peter, do you love Me?"
 "You know I do." "Shepherd My sheep."
 Again. "Peter, do you love Me?" There it was. The third time. Peter was grieved. It cut him to the heart. "Lord, You know all things. You know I love You." "So, feed My sheep."

Three denials. Three affirmations. An opportunity for repentance to cover each failure. What grace! Peter in the courtyard was a pathetic coward. Peter on the beach was forgiven and empowered for service! Jesus set Peter on a trajectory that pointed directly toward Pentecost when his bold preaching would bring 3,000 people to salvation and set the world ablaze.

Do you need a fresh start today? Does your church need a fresh start this year? Are you hiding somewhere between the courtyard and Pentecost, wondering if God can still use you? He can and He will. Come before Him humbly and repent. Seek His face and He will give you His grace. Worship Him and wonder at His Word. How God longs for us to embrace a fresh start! Amen, may it happen here.

:) Abby

A Wonderful Offering for Puerto Rico!

When Hurricane Maria caused so much devastation on the island of Puerto Rico, our District initiated a special offering for Disaster Relief for the island. A special offering was taken at our District Conference on October 21, 2017 and we continued to receive offerings up through Christmastime.

The total amount given by churches and individuals in our District for Puerto Rico was $22,419! This was a wonderful response, and it will go a long way to helping with the needs of our Puerto Rican brothers and sisters.

This money will be sent to the Disaster Relief Fund administered by the Church of the Brethren denominational offices. Roy Winter, the Disaster Relief Coordinator for our denomination, will be overseeing the distribution of these funds in conjunction with offerings made by other Districts of the Church of the Brethren. We are glad for Roy's work in that he will know best how to use this money to meet the most crucial needs.

A big THANK YOU to all of our churches and folks in the Western PA District who gave to this effort. May the LORD continue to send His aid to Puerto Rico through His people and their prayers.

A request from the chaplain at the Brethren Home...

Every Sunday at 2 p.m. the residents at the home gather for worship.

If you can lead a worship service any Sunday, please contact Pastor Cecil Lohr at 814-233-8524 to sign up for a certain Sunday or to be put on a call as needed list.

This is an important outreach to the residents. Music plays an important part of worship so if someone can play an instrument and/or lead some group signing, or if a choir would like to have special music that is especially enjoyed by our residents.

Please call Pastor Cecil if you have any questions

- Rejoice in the growing presence of the Church of the Brethren across the globe
- Explore what it truly means to be a global church and how each district, congregation, and individual can take part
- Commit to investing in this vision

We, though, are going to love—love and be loved. First we were loved, now we love. He loved us first. If anyone boasts, "I love God," and goes right on hating his brother or sister, thinking nothing of it, he is a liar. If he won't love the person he can see, how can he love the God he can't see? The command we have from Christ is blunt: Loving God includes loving people. You've got to love both. 1 John 4:19-21 The Message

Global Mission Prayer Guide

Haiti

Pray for Church of the Brethren volunteers with the Global Food Initiative (GFI) and agricultural staff of Eglise des Freres d'Haiti (Church of the Brethren in Haiti) as they install a new aquaponics system at the Brethren Guesthouse and Ministry Center in Croix-des-Bouquets. An aquaponics system grows fish and plants, such as vegetables, together in water. The fish waste provides fertilizer for the plants, and the plants naturally filter the water for the fish. This system will serve as a teaching and learning model that eventually will be replicated in other locations if successful. Pray that this project can lead to greater food production and self-sustainability for Haitian communities.

Pakistan

Pray for the victims of a church bombing in the city of Quetta, where 9 people were killed and at least 50 injured. Pakistan's Islamic State group affiliate has claimed responsibility for the suicide bombing. Pray for strength and healing for the wounded. Pray for miraculous comfort for those who have lost loved ones.

Venezuela

Pray for all those affected by the severe economic crisis in Venezuela. Hyperinflation and food shortages have led to a massive hunger crisis. Infants and children have been especially victimized, with hundreds dying from severe malnutrition. Overrun hospitals have lacked the space and resources to treat the record number of malnourished children brought in, especially as the hospitals have not been able to access the needed medications.

Dominican Republic

Pray for the pastoral retreat of Iglesia de los Hermanos, the Church of the Brethren in the Dominican Republic, being held December 8-10 in San Cristobol. Approximately 150 participants will gather for times of worship, fellowship, Bible study, and discussion of Brethren beliefs and practices. Pray for Church of the Brethren pastors Marla Bieber Abe and Galen Hackman as they travel to the Dominican Republic to lead the Brethren beliefs and practices sessions during the retreat. Galen's book on this topic will be a basis for the sessions. The two also will visit Iglesia de los Hermanos congregations and attend an inauguration ceremony for a new theological training space.

Vietnam

Pray for a new medical social work initiative organized by Global Mission worker Grace Mishler, working with the eye care unit of Children's Hospital 1 in Ho Chi Minh City. The initiative focuses especially on babies with Retinopathy of Prematurity, an eye disease that can cause blindness. Grace and volunteers with the initiative gather data on hundreds of families, facilitate a parent support group, organize training for early intervention, raise funds, and investigate potential environmental issues for the high rates of premature births within a certain rural area in Vietnam. Pray that this initiative can continue to build up the capacity of the hospital and find ways to preserve the eyesight of the children.

Honduras

Chet Thomas, Church of the Brethren member and executive director of Proyecto Aldea Global (PAG), requests prayer for the people of Honduras, as the country is divided over the contested results of the November 26 presidential election. The confrontations have led to protests, riots, and destruction of public buildings, and many vital transportation services across the country are on hold. Amnesty International reports that at least 14 people have been killed and dozens injured when gunfire has erupted at demonstrations. According to Thomas, the crisis threatens the stability of a country that has experienced relative peace and achieved significant economic and social improvements in recent years. Pray for mediation and a peaceful resolution to the conflict, with understanding and compromise from the various parties. Pray for the development work of PAG, which has reduced its activities until the conflict is resolved.

United States

Continue to pray for Church of the Brethren workers overseas.

Palestine and Israel

Pray for the people of Jerusalem, where tensions are high following US President Donald Trump's recognition of the city as the capital of Israel. The Church of the Brethren's Office of Public Witness has issued the following statement: The Trump Administration announced the decision to relocate the United States embassy to Jerusalem, and to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. This development is disappointing, as it sets the peace process back and ignites the potential for violent reactions from impacted communities. The unilateral decision to recognize Jerusalem as the capital is not conducive to a successful peace process in the region.

The Church of the Brethren addressed the possibility of such a relocation in a 1996 Statement on Jerusalem, which said: "We also urge the United States government to maintain an active and balanced role in the peace process, recognizing its unique relationship with the government of Israel, the legitimate claims of the Palestinian people, and the importance of a just and equitable resolution of the status of Jerusalem. Toward this aim, the U.S. embassy in Tel Aviv should not be relocated until the permanent status negotiations on Jerusalem are concluded." The 1980 Threats to Peace statement addressed the Israeli-Palestinian conflict more broadly, saying: "Furthermore, we commend efforts of our government to achieve a resolution of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict which include a termination of the violence and counter-violence, a mutual recognition of sovereign entities, and a just solution and compensation for those persons uprooted by the conflict since 1948."

Pray for political leaders in the United States to be infused with courage and wisdom so that they may act for the good of global peace. Pray for all of us as United States citizens to hold our elected officials accountable. Pray for an end to the illegal and unjust Israeli occupation of Palestine, which threatens the welfare of both Palestinians and Israelis.

United States

Pray for everyone affected by the wildfires in southern California. The California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection reports that 98,000 people have been evacuated with 25,000 homes affected by five different wildfires. The biggest, the Thomas fire, spans 230,000 acres. Pray for provision for those who have fled their homes. Pray for safety for the 9,000 firefighters working to contain the blazes. Pray for relief. Pray for the team of Children's Disaster Services volunteers serving children and families affected by this natural disaster. Pray that they may bring some comfort in a time of fear and uncertainty.

DISTRICT DISASTER TEAM

January 10, 2018

Herb Ewald, Volunteer Coordinator

“Serve one another in love” Galatians 5:13

Thank You to all those individuals who helped make our busy schedule for 2017 a success! If it would not have been for each of you I would not have been able to compile this impressive year end recap! Thanks to Rev. Tim Vaughn for the use of his van to make four trips to transport volunteers to New Windsor, MD. And thanks also to Tom Watson for the use of his trailer to transport the large amount of kits supplied by the district to New Windsor. Thank you to the District Staff for all of your help and support, without which we could not have accomplished all that has been done!

Having said all of that there is still an urgent need for volunteers, since our volunteer base is shrinking due to an aging population, health concerns, deaths, etc. The district van will accommodate up to eleven volunteers and we can rarely, except for trips to New Windsor, fill those seats. Based upon the four week long trips we made in 2017 there were only 24 seat used out of a possible 44. I challenge each of to consider setting in one of those empty seats. Just think of how much more could have been done and how much pain and suffering could have been eliminated if we could have doubled the amount of volunteers who participated!! The feeling you will get by serving, is unexplainable!

In 2018 would you Please Consider a one day trip to New Windsor, or a week long trip with us, I am sure you will not regret either, and the beauty part of it all it is that the trips are virtually expense free.

It is hard, for me, to believe that with the number of churches in the Western District we cannot, without a lot of effort, get a crew on every trip. In fact wouldn't it be GREAT if we had a waiting list wanting to serve! PLEASE HELP.

Contact your congregational coordinator! Don't have one call me Herb 814-539-8530!!

Since it is becoming increasingly more difficult to secure a crew of eleven volunteers via telephone, with the help of the District, I will be using email to communicate with church's and individuals to line up the necessary people to make the program work. This system, I hope, will streamline the process and eliminate missed calls and phone messages that sometime go unanswered. Missed calls and unanswered messages requires another time consuming telephone call, sometimes with the same results! After the receipt of an email, and after checking the printed schedule would you PLEASE consider giving a day or a week out of your busy schedules toward this very rewarding, worthwhile ministry. PLEASE contact your church coordinator to volunteer. If your church does not have one PLEASE contact Herb Ewald at hjewald@atlanticbb.net or (814) 539-8530.

February, 2018

BE MY VALENTINE: Its February again, time to spread the spirit of love to everyone around us. If you, your Sunday school class, women's fellowship, or youth group, is looking for a Valentine's Day project, please consider sending valentines to the Home. Our residents love to receive mail, and either homemade or "store bought" valentines bring joy to all who receive them. Cards may be sent directly to a resident, or to the activities department and they will be distributed throughout the Home.

A NOTE FOR VISITORS: We have been essentially flu-free for the first months of the winter season, and are anxious to continue our community good health. We hope that Home visitors will have received the 2017-18 flu vaccine, and for our residents' sake, those who are experiencing cold or flu symptoms should delay their visits to the Home until they are feeling well.

CHRISTMAS, 2017: Sincere thanks to everyone who was able to help celebrate the Christmas season at the Home. The family open house, entertainment, decorations, visits, presents, and cards helped make our season merry. The annual Christmas Tree of Stars was decorated with love, and brought to mind many of our former residents and friends. Best of all, the spirit of Christmas was spread through the beautiful religious services held throughout the month by volunteers of all faiths. They kept Christ in Christmas and in our hearts as well; we were all blessed!

MATILDA (TILLY) PAVLIK CELEBRATES HER HERITAGE: Tilly

Pavlik has always been proud of her Slovenian heritage. Her parents immigrated to the United States by 1920, settled in Johnstown, and tried to keep the lore of their homeland alive for their five children. One of Mrs. Pavlik's earliest memories of her Slovenian heritage was learning a song about horses that she sang on WJAC radio at age 5.

Over the years Mrs. Pavlik kept the tune of the song in her heart, and with the help of her daughter-in-law Maureen, it was eventually written as sheet music. Children from the Windber Elementary School learned the "Jingle Bell Horses" song, and sang it as a part of their holiday performance at the Brethren Home last year and again this season. Mrs. Pavlik hopes that the song will become a link that keeps their rich Slovenian heritage alive for her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is pictured above with her son David, and daughter-in-law, Maureen.

SNAPSHOTS: (top left) The Windber High School Chorus visited to help fill the Home with the spirit of the season. (bottom left) The Scalp Level COB Choir gave the gift of their music to the annual Christmas open house. (right) The Christmas Tree of Stars was decorated with stars and ornaments placed in honor of our residents, and in memory of family loved ones.

2017 “52 GOD BLESS YOU TEAM”

As more and more families are blessed they contribute $1.00 a week or $52.00 to Camp so that the ministry can bless others. The original premise was that if all the families in the District contributed $52, the debt could be eliminated. The 2017 “52 GOD BLESS YOU TEAM” completed the year with over 65 families and/or churches involved who donated over $4,000.

Thank You for your prayers and generosity. At this printing the 2018 Team has started.
